

Course Name: HTML 5- The Language

HTML5 is the latest version of the Hypertext Markup Language used to create web content. It introduced new elements and features for multimedia integration, improved accessibility, and enhanced interactivity. HTML5 supports video, audio, canvas for graphics, and responsive design, making it a crucial standard for modern web development across various devices and platforms.

