ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE POLICY

East Point College of Engineering and Technology (EPCET) college has a strict, zero-tolerance policy towards ragging. The Institute educates students on what constitutes ragging, the destructive impact of it, as well as the repercussions and punishments of such activity. The Institute will not support any act that is illegal as constructed by the law of the land. As adults, the students are expected to have a fair sense of which act is legal and what is illegal. They should conduct themselves both inside and outside the Institute in a manner that is befitting an institute of this stature. In addition to being mature and responsible in their conduct, the students are expected to respect the rights of other members. The Institute encourages an all-round development of student's personality and their progressive and creative thinking. At the same time, in order that they effectively discharge civic responsibilities and virtues, the Institute sets its own terms of conduct that must be adhered to by all the students. The Institute can take action, if these terms are violated, through different Committees. The Institute will collect Affidavit from students and parents. Any Grievance can be registered from students or Parents using the given mail-id
