Mini Project Exhibition “TechFest: Cutting Edge Mini Project Exhibition” was presented by the department of CSE at East Point College of Engineering and Technology. Mr.Varun Mahajan And Mr. Pruthvi S, Associate Trainer from Industry gave informative and very good feedback to student regarding Mini Project. Through this program, students gained unparalleled opportunities to harness the full potential of LinkedIn's suite of premium features, thereby augmenting their career prospects and professional growth trajectories. Through a project exhibition, students can share their research findings, project outcomes, and innovative ideas with their peers, faculty members. This allows students to receive feedback and suggestions, which can help them to improve their project and gain valuable insights. Additionally, project exhibitions provide a platform for students to interact with experts, allowing them to network and explore future opportunities. The participants were benefitted immensely from this webinar. The CSE department looks forward to conduct multiple informative webinars like this in the near future.
