

Faculty	Mrs. G.Divya Assistant Professor – Computer Science & Engineering East Point College of Engineering & Technology
	Mrs. G. Divya received her MTech software Engineering degree in Computer Science and Engineering from VIT Vellore, India in 2020. In final year (2019) she got an internship opportunity with Continental Automative company which is located in Bangalore, she worked as artificial intelligence intern and worked on a project called prediction of emotions from facial images using Alexnet architecture, after that she have worked with Spoton company as data analyst and have worked with different data analysis tools. She has good knowledge with Convolutional neural networks and data analysis tools.
	Achievements / Awards / Recognitions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Participated in campus hackathon and won as a runner up. 2. Winner in Best team competition at continental company