Duration	6 hrs	From:	10:00 AM	To:	4:00 PM
Program Objective	The objective of the Freshers' Day is to encourage students to showcase their unique fashion styles, celebrate diversity, and foster a vibrant, inclusive campus culture.
The students of the 5th and 7th semesters came together to organize a memorable Fresher’s Day celebration for the new batch of 3rd-semester students. The event was a mix of fun, excitement, and warm hospitality, marking the official welcome of the freshers to the institution. Formal Welcome Ceremony The event began with a formal welcome extended to the freshers, faculty, and staff members. The hosts from the 5th and 7th semesters warmly greeted the attendees, expressing excitement for the day’s activities and gratitude to the faculty for their guidance. The faculty members delivered a brief speech, emphasizing the importance of academic growth and building strong bonds within the college community. Games and Cultural Performances : The formal proceedings were followed by a lively set of games that filled the hall with laughter and excitement. Highlights included Dumb Charades – Animal Edition, where students enacted animals in hilarious ways, and a unique saree-draping challenge, where boys became models and girls styled them. With faculty mentoring each team, the fun doubled, and the segment reached its peak when the boys, dressed in sarees, performed a dance and ramp walk, drawing cheers from the crowd. The celebrations continued with energetic cultural performances. The 5th-semester CSE students presented a multilingual dance medley, followed by the college dance club electrifying the stage with high-energy Tamil performances. Together, these acts created a vibrant and festive atmosphere, showcasing talent, creativity, and unity. The most awaited segment was the Mr. & Miss. Fresher competition, beginning with a stylish ramp walk featuring the HOD ma’am, faculty, freshers, and last year’s winners. Freshers then faced a questionnaire round that tested their confidence and presence of mind. After lively dance performances by the finalists, the winners were crowned based on audience applause, marking a thrilling and memorable conclusion to the evening.
